

Grand Junction, Colorado

CMU/WCCC seeks Lecturers for:

AGRS 250/250L, Live Animal and Carcass Evaluation, 3 credits

Class meets on Mondays from 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., August 22- December 9, 2016

- Course description: Explores meat carcass evaluation and the related yield and quality grading system. Emphasizes selection of breeding stock based on performance data. Covers comparative selection, grading, and judging of market and breeding classes of livestock based on knowledge of phenotype, performance, information, and/or carcass merit.
- Qualifications to teach course: Minimum of a master's degree. Preferably in agriculture, biological sciences, or related area. Experience in the agriculture industry or related fields.

AGRS 102, Agriculture Economics, 3 credits

Class meets on Wednesdays from 9:00a.m. – 12:00 p.m., August 22- December 9, 2016

- Course description: This course provides an introduction to the economic principles applied to agriculture through price discovery with producer supply & consumer demand, governmental policies, rural development and resource management.
- Qualifications to teach course: Minimum of a master's degree. Preferably in agriculture, business, or related area. Experience in the agriculture industry or related fields.

Apply by July 1, 2016

For details, go to www.coloradomesa.edu/human-resources/new-employees.html.

Direct inquiries to Debbie Balmer at dbalmer@coloradomesa.edu or 970-255-2603.

EOE