Mesa State Business Students Host Third Annual Golf Tournament

Grand Junction - The third annual Business Executive Golf Tournament will be May 22, at Adobe Creek Golf Course. The four-man best ball scramble is hosted by Mesa State College's Future Business Leaders of America student organization, Phi Beta Lambda (PBL). Check in starts at 8 a.m. with a complimentary continental breakfast and the shotgun start is at 9 a.m. Lunch (included) and an awards ceremony will be held in the clubhouse following the tournament.

The PBL Cup, a travelling trophy, will be awarded to the top four-man team to hold until next year's tournament. In addition, the winning team will have their names engraved on a permanent plaque housed in the business department at Mesa State College.

The cost for a four-man team is $375 and interested parties may sign up by contacting Deb Parman at Mesa State College, 970-248-1170, or Justin Kawcak (970-620-1975). Tickets may also be ordered via email at dparman@mesastate.edu. Hole sponsorships are also available for $145. All donations are tax deductible and proceeds will support the students of Phi Beta Lambda to travel to National Leadership Conference to compete in academic competition.

FBLA-PBL is a nonprofit educational association, with a combined membership of over 250,000 active members worldwide. Their goal includes building the future business leaders of tomorrow through developing character, scholarship, and leadership and by providing a network of support from community leaders.
