Add / Drop / Withdrawals

Adding / Dropping a Class: Students may alter their class schedule without an instructor's permission until the published deadline without it having any impact on their transcript. Tuition and fees will also be adjusted to the remaining class schedule.

Withdrawal with a "W": Students may withdraw from a course with the instructor's signature following the last day to drop to the midpoint of the class. The course will appear on the student's transcript with the grade of "W". No refund of Tuition/Fees. Financial aid eligibility / funding may be affected.

Withdrawal with an "F": All students withdrawing after the midpoint of the class will receive an automatic "F" except for cases with documented, extenuating, non-academic circumstances. No refund of Tuition/Fees.

Total Withdrawal: The student is completely withdrawing from CMU for the Semester. A total withdraw between the first day of the term up to the course drop dates reverse tuition and course fees except a $225 partial tuition assessment. Withdrawing from a course after the drop deadline up to the mid-point of the class does not adjust tuition and course fees and will receive a grade of "W". Total withdrawals after the midpoint of the class does not adjust tuition and course fees and will receive a grade of "F". Once the term starts, the student is liable for tuition and course fees regardless of attendance. Financial aid eligibility will be reviewed in accordance with federal guidelines.

Instructor Withdrawal: An Instructor may initiate a drop/withdrawal from his or her class. Please note that the instructor must complete this form AND PERSONALLY submit it to the Registrar's Office before the published deadline.
