

TRANSFER TO BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM

Used for students to change from an Associates program to a Baccalaureate program

- POLICY: A student who is currently in a vocational or associate degree program at Colorado Mesa University may apply to transfer into a baccalaureate program if the student has accomplished one of the following:
- Successful completion of an associate degree program at Colorado Mesa University.
- OR
- Completion of 30 or more semester credits (college level) at Colorado Mesa University with a cumulative G.P.A. of 2.30 or higher.
- OR
- Completion of 13-29 semester credits (college level) at Colorado Mesa University with a cumulative G.P.A. of 2.30 or higher* and meet the Colorado Higher Education Admission Requirements (HEAR). To ensure meeting the HEAR requirements, a student should complete one college level course in all the following categories: English, Math, Science, and Social Science.

*Some baccalaureate programs may require a higher G.P.A. and/or impose additional requirements for admission. Please refer to the specific program sheets and to the current Colorado Mesa University catalog for admission requirements of particular programs. The student is ultimately and solely responsible for knowing and fulfilling the admission and graduation requirements for particular degree programs.

PROCEDURE

1. Student completes student portion of Application to Baccalaureate Program (below) and submits application to Office of the Registrar.
2. Office of the Registrar completes verification and notifies student by mail of acceptance or denial to a Baccalaureate Program.
3. Student must contact the department of their major department to be assigned an academic advisor.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Two weeks prior to the start of the semester.
