As a Colorado teacher licensing institution, the Colorado Mesa University has an obligation to the teaching profession to maintain high standards for our teacher education students. In addition to meeting required academic standards, prospective teachers must also demonstrate attitudes and behaviors consistent with professional conduct and effective work with children. Once accepted into the Teacher Education Program, faculty of the Center for Teacher Education monitor teacher candidate performance and attitudes as they relate to appropriate behavior in both courses and field experience schools.

Disposition Procedures:

Documentation of Dispositions
- Each semester candidates complete education courses and/or field hours:
  - Mentors, supervisors, and faculty will complete the disposition evaluation for all EDUC courses on an as needed basis.
  - All forms will be turned in to the Level Coordinator.

Potential Actions
- The program coordinator shall meet with the candidate to discuss remediation strategies if:
  - an instructor, mentor, or field supervisor requests a meeting, or
  - a candidate receives two unacceptable ratings on any single professional disposition, either across clinical experiences or by two raters within a single semester (Teacher Candidate Review Committee may be involved as deemed appropriate by the program coordinator.)
- If a candidate receives three or more unacceptable ratings in any combination of categories or negative ratings by three persons, the program coordinator shall review the documentation and
  - permit the candidate to proceed in the program with appropriate remediation (see Disposition Action Plan form) or
  - deny completion of the program or recommend removal of the candidate from the program to the Director of Teacher Education

Candidates who wish to appeal the CTE Director's decision may do so through the usual Colorado Mesa University appeals process.
