

2021-2022 Faculty Colloquium Series

Monday, February 14, 2022, 12-1 pm
Escalante Hall, Room 125

“Little kids teach jazz musicians how to talk”

Dr. Adrian Herrera Escobar

Assistant Professor of Music, Piano and Commercial Keyboard

Join us on an amazing journey that explores the way jazz musicians learn vocabulary with an interesting comparison as to how humans have been learning to talk in their native language.

This presentation will include recording examples as well as a live jazz piano performance that will turn the colloquium into a fun experience that everyone can enjoy, no matter their musical background or discipline.
