About This Major . . .

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Mass Communications provides students with four concentration areas: Broadcasting; News/Editorial; Public Relations/Advertising; and Print Media. The overriding goal in the program is to offer students an opportunity to develop the knowledge, theory and skills that will assist them in securing employment in the broad field of mass communications.

Mesa State’s Mass Communication majors are employed across the country at radio and TV stations, newspapers, advertising and public relations firms, and various business enterprises such as hospitals, banks, insurance companies, and schools. More specifically, a Mesa State Mass Communications graduate is now the marketing and PR director for the Grand Junction Downtown Authority. Others work in public relations for the National Football League, as the Marketing and Communications Director for the Metro North Chamber of Commerce, and as editor and designer for Summit Catalog Company

POLICIES:

1. It is your responsibility to determine whether you have met the requirements for your degree. Please see your MSC Catalog for a complete list of graduation requirements.
2. You must go to the Registrar’s Office and fill out the “Intent to Graduate” form at the beginning of the semester prior to graduating.
3. This program sheet must be submitted with your graduation planning sheet to your advisor during the semester prior to graduating, no later than September 15 for Spring graduates, February 15 for Fall graduates.
4. Your advisor will sign and forward the Program Sheet, Intent to Graduate Form, and Graduation Planning Sheet to the Department Head for signature.
5. Finally, the Department Head or the department administrative assistant will take the signed forms to the Registrar’s Office. (Students cannot handle the forms once the advisor signs.)
6. If your petition for graduation is denied, it will be your responsibility to reapply for graduation in a subsequent semester. Your “Intent to Graduate” does not automatically move to a later graduation date.
