About This Major . . .

The English Department at Mesa State College offers programs leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Literature, Creative Writing, Secondary Education and Technical Writing. The skills a student develops as an English major, such as writing, editing, problem solving, critical thinking and analysis, are highly prized by employers in nearly every profession. The department is proud of what it offers – cultural experiences, unique and interesting courses and instruction, committed faculty and support staff and a desire to provide the best liberal arts education possible.

This concentration will provide theoretical background, direct practice, and work experience for students pursuing employment as technical and professional writers, both on a freelance and contracted basis. The required internship is an especially valuable component of the concentration. In addition to English majors interested in this concentration, students in other four-year fields and those completing two-year programs, such as in nursing or technology, find that this coursework complements their major.
