Day 37: Did you know that Third Party Comment is a part of the comprehensive evaluation process?

A part of Colorado Mesa University's evaluation process is the filing and review of a Federal Compliance (FC) document, required by the U.S. Department of Education and administered through the Higher Learning Commission. One of the FC requirements is an invitation for the public to submit comments regarding CMU directly to the Commission.

Comments are limited to those of a substantive nature regarding CMU or the quality of its programs. The comments must be in writing and are reviewed and shared with the institution and the peer review team assigned to the University. To meet this expectation, CMU has published the attached notice in a variety of media outlets. Responses can be submitted by mail or on HLC’s website, but must be received by HLC no later than October 6, 2017.
