

HLC: 27 Days and Counting...Did You Know?
October 22, 2013

Did you know that CMU offers its students a wide-range of social and cultural activities?

Self-Study Report, Evidence Item 3D1-5: The University provides for the social and cultural needs of students. A number of student fee-funded organizations are administered by CMU students, including the following:

- Club Advisory Board (CAB): Currently CMU has over 70 active clubs on campus, including club sports and religious, academic, and social club...
- Associated Student Government (ASG): ASG is the representative body and official voice of the students...Students involved in ASG have an opportunity to gain leadership skills by representing student opinions to the CMU administration and Board of Trustees, and they are responsible for reviewing and administering student fee requests.
- Cultural Diversity Board (CDB): This student organization... organizes programs to educate students regarding multicultural concerns and issues. Member groups include the Black Student Alliance, Gay-Straight Alliance, Ho'olokahi Polynesian Club, International Student Association, La Raza, and the Native American Student Council.
- Programming Activities Council (PAC): PAC is responsible for Welcome Week, Homecoming Unity Fest and MAV Fest as well as other entertainment activities...
- Media Board: Organizations within the Media Board include the student newspaper, The Criterion; the student radio station, KMSA 91.3 FM; and the literary and art publications, The Literary Review and Horizon Magazine...
- Fine Arts Board: Organizations participating in the Fine Arts Board include the Art Gallery, the Forensics Team, the Pep Band, and the Campus Design Studio.
