COLORADO MESA
UNIVERSITY
GRAND JUNCTION, COLORADO
ARE YOU READY TO BEGIN?

Colorado Mesa University (CMU) is committed to making your international experience in the United States exceptional and affordable. With students from 42 countries and a student body that welcomes diversity, international students feel well-supported from the time they apply through graduation and beyond.

The International Admissions and Programs Office assists with admission and visa process, and offers new students an orientation and a peer mentor to facilitate adjustment. Throughout the year, the international office provides regular event programming and support services. Choices for campus involvement are plentiful. The Programming Activities Council offers free university-wide events. The Outdoor Program plans numerous outdoor trips and provides the gear, transportation and planning. The International Student Alliance, one of CMU’s 120+ clubs and organizations, is here to help you network and develop friendships and a sense of belonging.
