If you want to take advantage of the opportunity to travel to Rome, Florence, Assisi and Paris with the Mesa State College Art Department, time is running out. Join us to see the major monuments in art history available for J-Term 2011. The deadline to sign up is September 17, 2010. (If you sign up by this date, you guarantee a seat and avoid late fees.)

This trip to see the art of Rome, Florence, Assisi and Paris is through the MSC Art Department and EF Travel. Suzie Garner, Professor of Art will lead participants into the rich history of Europe’s world-renowned centers of art with scheduled excursions to the Sistine Chapel, Vatican City, the Vatican Museums, St. Peter’s Basilica, and the Colosseum in Rome. In Paris visits to the Louvre, Notre Dame Cathedral, Monmarte, the Musée d’Orsay and more in the great cities of Assisi and Florence.

A three credit hour course is available in upper-division Art Studio credit and credit is offered for teachers needing recertification credits. The trip is open to any student, alumni and their family and friends wishing to participate. Contact Suzie Garner at 970.248.1444 or sgarner@mesastate.edu for more information. Click on these links:
