

Oil and Gas in the time of 181

180 degrees from yesterday

SB 181 Sweeping and Comprehensive

Foster vs Regulate

Repeal State preemption

Pooling now has 45% minimum threshold

Air Quality - measure measure measure

Economically reasonable & technically feasible gone and replaced with reasonable or reasonable and necessary

Commission reorganization

Full local control and regulation of the surface

Waste subject to health and safety and environment

1041 exemption repealed

SB 181 Amendments that Mattered

“Reasonable and necessary”

“Delay instead of refuse”

45% instead of over 50 % before pooling can be requested

Locals limited to “surface uses”

No extra territorial regulation

SB 181 - Local land Use Authorities

Well and facility location

Access

Noise

Odor

Setbacks

Health and safety

Inspection

Enforcement

Fees and fines

Financial assurance

Plan and regulate consistent with the constitutional rights

Land Use

Water quality and source

Dust

Light

Air emissions and air quality

land disturbance

Reclamation

Traffic and transportation

Nuisance effects and impacts

SB 181 - What is to Come

Rulemakings at the state

2.5 (a) protect and minimize adverse impacts

11(c) Alternative site location and cumulative impacts

(19) Review Flowline and shut-in and abandoned well rules

New state commission - temp and permanent

New permit fees

6000+ permits subject to a new filter process

Lengthening of permit times

Locals with authority to say no or not here, over there

New local regulations

SB 181 Possible Effects to the State

Likely slowdown in new wells

Likely loss of revenue to the state

Likely loss of revenue to schools

Increase need for the state to backfill the school budget

SB 181 - What Industry Needs To Do

Build Trust

Change the Narrative

Educate and Emoticate

Feelings Drive Decisions

Bring Passion for Safety, for Community, for the Poor

Redouble efforts to do right by our neighbors

Empowers ourselves

Volunteer on local boards and commissions

Get elected

Be involved in local rulemakings show up to hearings - make your voices heard

Companies need to encourage and trust their people to be involved