Scholarship Consideration

- New CU-CMU students must complete the CU-Boulder Engineering Merit Scholarship Application for CU-CMU Partner Students annually to be considered for scholarships (if you were admitted to the program by 4/13/15, you should have received an email with the application link).

Review and Revision of Scholarship Awarding Criteria

- All undergraduate scholarships are overseen by the College's Undergraduate Scholarship Committee
- As with the Boulder campus scholarships, the Committee regularly reviews scholarship award levels for the CU/CMU Partnership Program
 - Based on:
 - Funding availability
 - Students' GPAs

Proposed 2015-2016 Academic Year Award Levels - Juniors

- Junior Year, 2015-2016
 - Students who completed the scholarship application may receive scholarships ranging from $1000-$1,750 in their junior year depending on their CMU cumulative GPA.
 - $1,750 per year if CMU GPA is 4.000
 - $1,500 per year if CMU GPA is 3.900 – 3.999
 - $1,250 per year if CMU GPA is 3.800 – 3.899
 - $1,000 per year if CMU GPA is 3.600 – 3.799

What if I didn't apply?

- Students who were admitted to the CU/CMU Mechanical Engineering program after April 13, 2015 should contact Gretchen Lee, Scholarship Coordinator, and request an application link.
- You must apply to be considered.
- 303-735-2440 or by email:
