       discussion and vote on selecting no more than three of the below for inclusion as the Graduate Certificate SLOs.

   The CMU master's degree graduate will be able to: ➢ Contribute to scholarly advancement in the chosen field by completing projects individually and collaboratively (Specialized Knowledge/Applied Learning); ➢ Formulate and evaluate hypotheses as related to research problems, issues, concepts, and various perspectives (Critical Thinking); ➢ Articulate moral, ethical, legal, or professional challenges within the discipline (Ethical Reasoning).
   ➢ Create oral and written arguments or explanations, well-grounded in discipline specific theories and methods, for specified audiences (Communication Fluency);

> ➢ Employ discipline-specific logical, mathematical, statistical methods, or other analytical processes to address a topic or issue (Quantitative Fluency);
> ➢ Synthesize, evaluate, or refine the information base of various scholarly sources (Information Literacy).

V.   Information Items

A. Important Dates and Deadlines for Academic Year 2021-2022

B. Any accompanying Program Proposals must be submitted at the same time as the course proposal before GCC Exec will review

C. In order for course changes to appear in the Fall 22 Schedule, the curriculum proposal must be through UCC no later than the November 2021 meeting

D. Once a curriculum proposal is approved at UCC, the proposal must then be approved at Faculty Senate, first on the consent agenda and then voted on the next meeting which increases the time for proposal approval. Subsequent approvals then follow from the BOT, CDHE, HLC and DOE.
