| Step 2: Colorado Residents Should Apply for the Colorado College Opportunity Fund
http://www.coloradomesa.edu/cof/index.html
http://www.collegeincolorado.org | The College Opportunity Fund (COF) provides a stipend for undergraduate students considered residents of Colorado. If you meet the residency requirements, the stipend will pay a portion of your in-state tuition when attending CMU. |
| Step 3: Register for Your Class | Space in the class is limited. To register for this class, at your earliest convenience, phone 970-249-7009 or visit in person with Chris Wilcox at the CMU Montrose campus in the Branscome Center on 245 S. Cascade. |
| Step 4: Set up a CMU student email address and a student MavZone account | After successfully applying, you will receive a Student ID number (also called a 700 number), a user name and a CMU email address, which allows you to access MavZone, which has tools to help students be students. |
| Step 5: Billing Information and Deadlines | Payment of tuition and fees are due by start of class. With your CMU MavZone account, you can set up a payment method such as credit card or bank account. Payment options, such as Deferred Payment Plans, are available. Call 249-7009 for information. You may be responsible for paying late fees if you have an unpaid balance after class starts. |
| Step 6: Order Textbook | The textbook is Essential Environment: The Science Behind the Stories, 6th Edition. Buy a new or used copy before the class starts. You can purchase the book from the CMU Bookstore or an online retailer. http://www.coloradomesa.edu/bookstore |
