MISSION:

Prepare musicians for the 21st Century

VISION:

Provide high level musical and technical training, complemented by diverse professional and entrepreneurial skills.

PURPOSES:

- Raise the artistic level of the community
- Prepare students for a wide variety of 21st-century careers
- Provide high-level ensemble experiences
- Serve as a musical resource and cultural center for the university and community
- Train students in current technology and pedagogy
- Respect classical traditions while exploring contemporary genres
- Inspire future music educators, leaders and advocates
- Promote a positive learning environment with a high level of student-faculty interaction