Refund policy: The act of registration constitutes a financial obligation to CMU regardless of attendance.

It is the student's responsibility to complete the proper paperwork to ensure their schedule is correct. The date this form is submitted to CMU will determine the refund rate.

Applies to all students who completely withdraw from all courses.

See the Add/Drop/Withdraw Deadlines page for dates and information on adding, dropping, and withdrawing.

100% Refund of Tuition and Fees	Scenario #1: 100% refund of tuition/fees All classes are dropped by their corresponding 100% refund date. If financial aid was disbursed, all awarded money must be returned to CMU. Contact IRIS for more details.
$225 Partial Tuition Assessment (Newly matriculated student will be assessed the $140 matriculation fee plus a $85 Partial Tuition Assessment)	Scenario #2: $225 Partial Tuition Assessment All classes are dropped. At least one dropped class fell in the $225 Partial Tuition Assessment time range. All others were dropped by the 100% refund date. If financial aid was disbursed, your aid will be recalculated through your drop/withdraw date. It is likely that loans and other awards will need to be returned to CMU. Contact IRIS for more details.
No Refund Full payment of tuition and fees required for classes not dropped by the appropriate deadline.	Scenario #3: Student owes tuition/fees for one or more classes At least one class had started and was withdrawn in the "No Refund" time frame for the session. The student owes tuition/fees for the classes in the "No Refund" time frame. If financial aid was disbursed, your aid will be recalculated through your drop/withdraw date. Loans and other awards may need to be returned to CMU. Contact IRIS for more details.

Grading Policy:

DROP - No grade will appear on the transcript if you submit the Semester Withdraw form by the drop deadline.
 WITHDRAWAL WITH "W" GRADE - After the drop deadline and prior to 50% of the term, a grade of "W" will appear on the transcript.
 WITHDRAWAL FAIL - After 50% of the term, a grade of "F" will appear on the transcript.

Partial Withdrawal from Semester:

If a student leaves at least one class on their schedule, tuition is adjusted to reflect the courses left on the schedule, plus the cost of classes that were "withdrawn" from in the "No Refund" time frame. A semester withdraw form is not necessary, but the student may need to use the Change of Schedule/Special Permission form if the drop deadline has passed. The student may adjust their schedule via MAVzone, through the Registrar's Office, WCCC Student Services, or Montrose Students Services.
