

Directions: For each judging category, multiply the weight (15, 30, 40, or 15) by the rank (low 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5 high) and enter the category score at the bottom of the page. Add the category scores to determine the total score. At the end of the session, confer with your co-judges to determine the winner, and give the results to the Faculty Facilitator.

	Ranking	Background/Introduction	Craft	Effect	Delivery
(weight)	Score	10	40	30	20
	1 (lowest)	The project itself was not introduced.	The overall craft is weak. Little to no evidence of the traditional elements of story, poetry, drama, or creative nonfiction.	No effect achieved. Work fails to move the audience or produce a connection between the audience's imagination and work presented.	Presenter unsettled, uninterested, and unenthused. Inappropriate voice mannerisms and body language. Delivery did not enhance the work being presented. Lack of stage presence.
	2	The project was briefly introduced.	The work shows some elements of craft but makes only a nod to them. Work could be improved by more attention to craft elements.	Little connection established between the work and the audience. Little emotional response generated in the audience.	Presenter unenthused, monotonous and ignoring audience. Voice, mannerisms, and body language sometimes inappropriate. Poor enhancement of work by delivery. Stage presence needs improvement.
	3	The project was explained in some detail.	The work shows average attention to craft elements of the genre.	Work produces the author's desired effect to an average degree.	Displayed interest and enthusiasm. Limited engagement with audience. Generally appropriate voice mannerisms and body language. Good quality of performance. Good stage presence.
	4	The project was introduced and the inspiration for the project was explained.	Work shows strong elements of craft, awareness of traditional genres as well as an attempt to be creative beyond basic craft demands.	Strong positive response to the work from the audience. To a large degree, the author has achieved the desired effect.	Engaged audience. Displayed interest and enthusiasm. Good voice mannerisms and body language. Above average delivery of work. Excellent stage presence.
	5 (highest)	The project was presented in terms of its relevance to the general public and/or the specific discipline.	Outstanding craft. Work strongly exhibits traditional elements of the genre and/or successful experimentation.	Outstanding control. Work and performance elicits desired effect upon the audience.	Very engaging. Genuinely interested and enthusiastic. Exceptional voice mannerisms and body language. Exceptional artistic presentation and stage presence.
