Attendance Policy

Absences: Absences are generally, unacceptable. We expect our candidates to achieve 100% attendance during the semester. Unavoidable absences, such as illness, must be communicated as soon as possible. Anything that might be considered a “personal day” MUST be pre-approved by your Colorado Mesa University Program Coordinator. To that end, interns must communicate the absence ahead of time when possible and the day of, at the latest, to the following people:

- Colorado Mesa University Program Coordinator
- Supervisor
- Mentor teacher
- School Secretary

NOTE: More than three (3) absences may impact your ability to successfully complete the internship semester.

All absences must be noted on the internship time log. Interns must receive prior approval for planned absences from their CMU coordinator. Approvals must be filed with the Undergraduate Coordinator.

Preparation for all absences: Lesson plans must be ready for your mentor teacher. Collaborate with your mentor teacher to determine the preferred format for lesson plans. Remember that the mentor AND students are counting on you to provide the curriculum so students can continue to learn.
