

The Electric Lineworker Program 2026-2027

Welcome to the Electric Lineworker Program at CMU Tech. In this informational packet you will find some useful suggestions and a check list to help your college journey be less stressful and more successful. Information about the required tool kit, CDL license, and the upcoming orientation are all listed in this packet, along with an application for The Workforce Center that you should fill out. The Workforce Center may be able to help you pay for your CDL license (per certain criteria) which is a huge advantage in your employment and career prospects after you complete your program. There is also a letter to accompany the Career Development Program for The Workforce Center, which has been signed by the Instructor of the Electric Lineworker program.

THE FIT OF TOMORROW. TODAY.

Years of innovation have led us to the tech-driven Ultimate Fit Experience™ —a 100% personalized approach that uses advanced technology to get workers into the best-fitting safety footwear. Why? Because their jobs are unique and their fit should be too.

3-step process. 3D results.

The fit won't quit—we offer ongoing conditioning, replacement laces and additional services to keep their boots at their best.*

It's not just a fitting, it's an experience!

Colorado Mesa Lineman College Discount: 15% off all Industrial Brands through Red Wing Shoes.

Consult / Listen as crew members describe their job and work environment.

Scan / A 3D scanner captures 16 key foot measurements, and a pressure plate visualizes gait and pressure points.

Fit / Customized technology creates a 3D model of their feet. AI-driven results match an ideal fit within your company-approved footwear styles along with insoles, socks and aftercare products for the support and comfort they deserve – all day, every day.

LIFETIME TUNE-UP SERVICE

Red Wing boots are built for toughness, performance and reliability—just like you and your crew. But we know they can take a beating, especially in extreme environments. That's why we offer a Lifetime Tune-Up Service* to help keep your boots at their best.

Free boot checkup

We'll examine the boots to check for wear and tear, and identify components that may need replacement or refurbishing.

Free replacement laces

Our laces are designed to last for 50,000 repetitions, but eventually they'll need to be replaced—and we'll do it for free.

Free cleaning and conditioning

This process helps restore the quality and softness of the leather while helping to protect it from drying and cracking.

Clean. Condition. Protect.
We call it Tough Love.
Watch the video.

All our footwear is made from the highest quality materials. With proper care and a little tough love, Red Wing boots can last for years, even getting better with age.
