UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM
Instructions for Application

What is Upward Bound?

TRiO Upward Bound (UB) is a federally funded grant sponsored by the Department of Education. UB is designed to support first-generation, and income eligible students prepare to enter and succeed in college. Upward Bound at Colorado Mesa University is a college preparatory program that assists high school students with academic potential in developing confidence and necessary skills to succeed in high school and college.

Upward Bound participants receive individualized counseling, instruction, and opportunities to enjoy educational and cultural events. UB participants are expected to take a full academic schedule, attend UB events, and fully participate in weekly Upward Bound tutoring and advising. The Upward Bound program also includes a required six-week summer program at Colorado Mesa University to help participants grow as students and individuals.

Upward Bound provides the following services and resources:
• Academic tutoring, including reading, writing, study skills, math, science, and more!
• Advisement in preparation for high school and college course selection
• Assistance in preparing for college entrance exams and completing college applications
• Financial literacy training including federal and state financial aid programs, scholarships, and completing the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA)
• College exploration trips to help students find a campus that fits their unique needs
• A six-week summer program including on-campus living, academic instruction, and social activities

Who Can Apply? (Established by Title 34 §645.3 of Code of Federal Regulations)

A student is eligible to participate in the Upward Bound program if they:
• Is enrolled in the 9th or 10th grade. 8th graders can begin during the summer between their 8th grade and 9th grade year. For our inaugural year (2022-2023), we will accept 11th and 12th grade students.
• Is income eligible, as determined by the limits set forth by federal regulations, or
• Is first-generation, meaning neither parent/guardian has a 4-year college degree
• Demonstrates academic eligibility (2.5 GPA or below, low standardized test scores, hasn’t taken algebra by 10th grade)
• Is a United States citizen or Permanent Resident
UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM
Information for Families and Students

How does Upward Bound work?

During the academic year, Upward Bound provides participants with:
- Academic, personal, and college-prep advising at their high school with an Upward Bound-specific advisor
- Saturday sessions to help improve college-preparatory skills and academic performance
- Educational and cultural events as well as college visits to enrich high school experiences
- Assistance in college application and financial aid processes

During the summer, Upward Bound provides participants with:
- Six weeks of academic instruction in math, science, language arts, and foreign language
- Fun recreational, cultural, and personal enrichment activities in Grand Junction and across the state
- High-quality staff—Teachers, Upward Bound advisors, and college student team leaders—help to support your progress throughout the summer

What will be expected of the student?

1. Enroll in eight academic courses every year including math, literature, composition, science, foreign language, and social studies.
   Over four years, Upward Bound students will exceed the minimum course load recommended for admission to most Colorado colleges, including:
   - 4 years of math (including Algebra 1, Geometry, and Algebra 2)
   - 4 years of English
   - 4 years of social studies (courses like psychology, US history, geography, etc.)
   - 2 years of the same foreign language
   - 3 years of laboratory science (biology, chemistry, physics, etc.)

2. Develop and achieve personal, academic, and college-prep goals with the support of the Upward Bound team and your Upward Bound advisor

3. Participate in all Upward Bound events and activities, including evening and weekend obligations

4. Maintain satisfactory academic progress and consistent class attendance

5. Attend each six-week summer program for the duration of your high school career

6. Treat yourself, other students, and staff with respect, being a positive representative of the program, your high school, and your community

How can I help my child be successful in Upward Bound?

- Encourage your student to be involved in all aspects of Upward Bound
- Participate in parent/guardian workshops on topics including college preparation, college admissions, financial planning for college, and career exploration
- Attend events during the academic year and summer program that highlight your student’s achievements and performance in the program
- Meet annually with an Upward Bound advisor and maintain contact on an ongoing basis.

Upward Bound is free of charge. There is no financial obligation for families.
Dear Applicants,

We are so excited to that you are interested in being a part of Upward Bound! This application packet contains all required forms you and your parents/guardians must complete. These forms are essential to ensuring our team has all necessary information to consider you for a spot within the program. Please ensure these forms are accurate and completed legibly prior to submission. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

To help make this application process easy, check off each of the following steps as you complete them to ensure you have all required forms finished!

Application Checklist:
Check off the items as you go!

- Section 1: Student Information
  - Provide a copy of your Social Security Card or
  - Birth Certificate or
  - Permanent Residency Card (both sides), if not a US citizen

- Section 2: Family & Eligibility Information
  - Please ensure you and your parent sign section 2, certifying your annual family income

- Section 3: Academic Information

- Section 4: Personal Statement

Student Participation Agreement

I understand the purpose of the Upward Bound program at Colorado Mesa University is to prepare participants to successfully complete college after high school. As a part of my personal effort in this preparation, I commit to Upward Bound through the entirety of my high school education and intend to participate in all academic year and summer components of the program.

I also understand that students accepted into the program must initially complete a 30-day probationary period and final placement into the program, as well as my continuation in the program, will be under the sole discretion of the Colorado Mesa University Upward Bound program staff.

By signing this agreement, I agree to:

- Work hard in achieving the personal, academic, and college-prep goals that I will set for myself alongside Upward Bound
- Treat myself, other Upward Bound students, and staff with respect
- Be a positive representative of the program in my school, community, and future college campus
- Communicate with my UB advisor, instructors, and mentors about any challenges or obstacles I am facing
- Understand that I may face challenges. Though you may try new things and fail, that’s okay! Our entire Upward Bound team will support you and we will get up together.
- Have fun and enjoy growing alongside my Upward Bound peers!
