High School Classes & Activities

- Monitor your student's academic progress. Ensure that you receive all academic updates, progress reports, and report cards.
- Provide encouragement and support for your child, making sure that your student understands the importance of starting off high school with strong grades
- Realize that it is your student's responsibility to get their homework done, study and prepare for tests, and follow all school rules.
- Encourage involvement in activities outside of school, but help your student limit their activities to the ones they are most passionate about
- Help your student pick classes that are both challenging and interesting to them
- Expect your student to be in school, on time, every day!
- Attend parent-teacher conferences

Upward Bound

- Attend Upward Bound open houses, orientation nights, and Saturday activities
- Realize it is your student's responsibility to fully participate in Upward Bound services, programs, and Summer Academy
- Expect your student to follow all Upward Bound program rules and attend after school programming Monday-Thursday at their high school
- Sign and return all Upward Bound waivers and releases ASAP
- Communicate with your student's Upward Bound Advisor about any questions or concerns you have
- Continue to encourage your student to pursue their dreams, especially during challenging times!
