

Many Thanks to these
Water Course
Sponsors!

February 11: Introduction to Colorado Water Supply, Use and Law

- 6:00 Welcome - Hannah Holm, Coordinator, Hutchins Water Center
- 6:10 Water Supply and Use in Colorado and the Colorado River Basin
Becky Mitchell, Director, Colorado Water Conservation Board
- 7:15 Break
- 7:30 Introduction to Colorado Water Law
Rob Pierce, Attorney, Dufford, Waldeck, Milburn & Krohn, L.L.P.

February 18: Impacts of Drought & Aridification

- 6:00 Welcome - Hannah Holm, Coordinator, Hutchins Water Center
- 6:05 Impacts on Fish
Lori Martin, NW Reg. Aquatic Supervisor; David Graf, Reg. Water Specialist, CO Parks & Wildlife
- 6:40 Increasing Fire in Riparian Areas
Doug Paul, Wildland Fire Mit/ Trng Officer, Bureau of Land Management
- 7:15 Break
- 7:30 Impacts on Municipal Water
Randi Kim, Utilities Director, City of Grand Junction
- 8:05 Impacts on Agriculture
Paul Kehmeier, Salinity Coordinator, Colorado Dept of Ag and Farmer

February 25: Colorado River Drought Contingency Planning

- 6:00 Welcome - Hannah Holm, Coordinator, Hutchins Water Center
- 6:05 Why Plan? Takeaways from the Colorado River Risk Study
John Currier, Chief Engineer, Colorado River District
- 6:30 Overview of the Colorado River Drought Contingency Plan
Lain Leoniak, Assistant Attorney General to the Federal & Interstate Water Unit, Colorado Attorney General's Office
- 6:55 Boosting Supply through Cloud Seeding and Phreatophyte Control
Dave Kanzer, Deputy Chief Engineer, Colorado River District
- 7:20 Break
- 7:35 Drought Operations at Colorado River Storage Project Reservoirs
Malcolm Wilson, Chief, Water Resources Group, Upper Colo Region, US Bureau of Reclamation
- 8:00 Reducing Use through Demand Management
 - Colorado Water Conservation Board Approach
Brent Newman, Section Chief, Interstate, Federal, and Water Information Section, Colorado Water Conservation Board
 - Grand Valley Benefits, Risks & Opportunities
Mark Harris, General Manager, Grand Valley Water Users Association