

Jay Humphrey

Jay has been the Emery Water Conservancy District General Manager for 32 years. The District started its monitoring/SCADA system in 1993 with 19 sites. Today the District has over 400 sites. The district measures water in canals, pipelines, reservoirs, automatically and manually controls gates, monitors small hydro power plant, conducts weather modification activities, and security at several reservoirs and diversions.