

John Carron

John is the founder and president of Hydros Consulting based in Boulder Colorado. He has a Ph.D. from CU-Boulder in Water Resources Engineering, and was involved in the early development of the RiverWare software tools that Reclamation uses for its Colorado River modeling. His primary area of interest is in the development of models and tools to help inform water policy decision-making.